

Get involved at your local GP practice

Become a voluntary member of your local Patient Participation Group and you can...

- Meet with other patients and practice staff
- Influence decision making about NHS services
- Work in partnership with the practice to explore new ideas
- Provide constructive feedback on practice services

Ask your GP practice team for more information on joining your Patient Participation Group